

GREAT PUBLIC SPACES

Evaluation Tool for Public Space and Public Life

This tool draws on research by Gehl, the Gehl Institute and Project for Public Spaces

How to use guide

This tool can assist in evaluating what is working well and what could be improved in your public space. It will add to an evidence base to help inform potential improvements.

- 1 Fill out the survey on site
- 2 Familiarise yourself with the site, observe and walk around
- 3 Take photos to show key features, activities and people gathering
- 4 Take the survey on multiple occasions at different times of the day, weekday or weekend
- 5 Complete the survey from your observations (not community interception)
