

The Improving Floodplains Connection program is targeting unapproved structures on our floodplains which alter the flow of water and stop it reaching environmental areas which need flood water to thrive. These structures include levees, roads, dams, channels, block banks and roads. They will be modified or removed.

This will improve the health of our rivers, wetlands, flood-dependent natural systems and cultural areas.

